

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

MICHAEL T. FLYNN,

Defendant.

Criminal Action No. 17-232-EGS

THIRD SUPPLEMENT IN SUPPORT OF AGREED DISMISSAL

On May 7, 2020, the Government moved to dismiss with prejudice the prosecution of General Flynn. ECF No. 198. Until this case is dismissed with prejudice, the Government has a continuing obligation to provide to the defense all evidence that is exculpatory of General Flynn, establishes misconduct by the Government in its many capacities that contributed to this wrongful prosecution, or otherwise is favorable to the defense. Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). The defense has a continuing obligation to make a record that mandates this dismissal—especially in view of this court’s unprecedented procedures and position.

Late last night, the Government produced yet another tranche of documents—its fifth production of exculpatory evidence since April of 2020, and its third since filing its massive Motion to Dismiss. ECF Nos. 198, 231, 237. According to the Government’s production correspondence: “The documents include handwritten notes of former Deputy Assistant Director Peter Strzok (23501 & 23503) and former Deputy Director Andrew McCabe (23502); and internal text messages between FBI analysts who worked on the Flynn matter (23504- 23516); . . . additional text messages between former DAD Strzok and Lisa Page (23516-23540)." The 41 pages of additional evidence demonstrate (i) his innocence; (ii) the absence of any crime; (iii) government misconduct in the investigation of General Flynn; and (iv) continuing prosecutorial misconduct in the suppression of evidence favorable to the defense in violation of Brady v. Maryland and this Court's Brady order. ECF No. 20.

These documents provide information long known to the agents and others at the highest levels of the Department of Justice and the FBI; information long concealed by the Special Counsel and FBI. This evidence shows outrageous, deliberate misconduct by FBI and DOJ—playing games with the life of a national hero. It negates multiple essential elements required for the prosecution of a false statement offense and any “offense” even considered in relationship to Flynn Intel Group’s review of open source information regarding Fethullah Gulen and the Muslim Brotherhood.

This remarkable new production shows that in August of 2016, the FBI analysts discussed the preference of some agents for a Clinton Presidency—a known quantity—“instead of a wild card like [T]rump.”

8/11/2016	19:30:05	doing all this election research - i think some of these guys want a clinton presidency
8/11/2016	19:30:20	they seem to respect that they know what they are gonna get
8/11/2016	19:30:25	haha, really
8/11/2016	19:30:36	instead of a wild card like trump

In messages exchanged on the FBI's "Lync" messaging system in October of 2016, FBI employees exchanged messages about the "Crossfire Road Show," stating that they were "interested to see how this all plays out." They knew exactly how bad it was: "I'm tellying man, if this thing ever gets FOIA'd, there are going to be some tough questions asked."

10/13/2016	17:02:04		haha, so now [REDACTED] is trying to work a trip to South Africa
10/13/2016	17:02:16		the Crossfire Road show

10/13/2016	18:51:02		and a great deal of those will be related to Brian having a scope way outside the boundries of logic
10/13/2016	18:51:07		[REDACTED] is one of the worst offenders of the rabbit holes and conspiracy theories
10/13/2016	18:51:47		This guy traveled with that guy, who put down 3rd guy as his visa sponsor. 3rd guy lives near a navy base, therefore.....

Notably, the "investigation" of General Flynn was first closed by November 8, 2016. The FBI agents write: "he said shut down Razor" and "so glad they're closing Razor." However [redacted] "was silent though, so who knows what he will want." Was that Andy [McCabe]¹?

¹ General Flynn has a Sixth Amendment right to a public exoneration regarding the proceedings against him, and the American people have a right to know the truth about the nefarious conduct and the people who committed it. The defense objects to any redactions and demands that the Government file these documents unredacted on the public record.

11/21/2016	20:05:19	[REDACTED]	speaking of - are these NSLs immediate? If not lets do that

FBI employees noted “that the decision to nsf [national security letter] finances for razor bought him time.” This shows their recognition that the issuance or request for national security letters for General Flynn’s financial information was a ruse to get more time to keep the “investigation” against him open. These Stalinist tactics mandate immediate dismissal of this case.

Analysts recognized by December 5, 2016, it was not even a “logical investigative step” to seek General Flynn’s financial records at that time and that “this is a nightmare.”

12/5/2016	15:03:35		what do we expect to get from an nsl
12/5/2016	15:03:46		he sat next to putin in dec
12/5/2016	15:03:51		their relationship is overt
12/5/2016	15:04:11		i did think at the time and i do now it was thr right call to do them
12/5/2016	15:04:17		Agreed. We didn't find anything else from the investigation about him.
12/5/2016	15:04:18		its a logical investigative step
12/5/2016	15:04:28		but now it is not
12/5/2016	15:04:55		we put out traces, tripwires to community and nothing
12/5/2016	15:04:58		bingo
12/5/2016	15:05:08		so whats an nsl going to do - no content
12/5/2016	15:05:29		anyways - hope you had a good thanksgiving
12/5/2016	15:05:38		hahah this is a nightmare

On that same day, analysts discussed NSLs as a pretext to buy time that also increased the risk of leaks. They also noted it was a topic that “makes no sense” since the argument was made back in August. “If we’re concerned about sensitivity/leaks, might not want to send NSLs that we don’t really intend on using.” “Exactly that makes no sense. We’d have to read in more people/field offices.” “Again—the argument you guys made to me in [A]ug[ust].”

FBI employees discussed the January 5, 2017, briefing of Obama: "What's the word on how O's briefing went?" asked one employee, to which the other replied, "Don't know but people here are scrambling for info to support certain things and it's Five days later, on January 10, 2017, FBI analysts knew it was so bad that they “all went and purchased professional liability insurance.” The same employees worried that “the whole thing is pretty ugly...we shall see how things pan out” and “[t]he concern when we got it was that there was a big leak at DOJ and the NYT among others was going to do a piece.” Further, “the new AG might have some questions...then yada yada yada...we all get screwed.” Exhibit A (emphasis added).

On January 13, 2017, FBI employees messaged that “someone leaked the Flynn calls with Kislyak to the WSJ.” In a response reeking with sarcasm, an FBI employee messaged “I’m so sorry to hear that. I’ll resume my duties as Chief Morale Officer and rectify that.”

Newly produced notes of Andrew McCabe show that at 5:15 p.m. on May 10, 2017, McCabe briefed the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. They were trying very hard to pin something on General Flynn. Exhibit B.

Newly produced notes of Peter Strzok show: Strzok met with Bruce Schwartz, Lisa, and George at DOJ on March 28, 2017, where he noted Flynn Intel Group “satisfied the registration obligation” and “no evidence of any willfulness.” Nonetheless, “Bruce” decided to issue subpoenas to Flynn Intel Group “and more.” Exhibits C, D.

The new Strzok-Page text messages show that Strzok played games with the FBI Sentinel serialization system and entry of 302s, Strzok and Page were pulling talking points from a Lawfare article, and “F’in Pamela Brown knows there were two phone call memos.” Further, these text message reinforce how zealously Strzok and Page were working to oppose Trump’s election and subvert the peaceful transfer of power. Exhibit E. The following are a sample of some of the conversations reflected in Exhibit E.

The Government provided copies of the production with all necessary redactions for public dissemination. These documents evidence stunning government misconduct that mandates the immediate dismissal of this wrongful prosecution. The Government's redacted production of last evening, September 23, 2020, is attached hereto as Exhibits A-E.

CONCLUSION

There was no case against General Flynn. There was no crime. The FBI and the prosecutors knew that. This American hero and his entire family have suffered for four years from public abuse, slander, libel, and all means of defamation at the hands of the very government he pledged his life to defend.

For these reasons and all those previously briefed, the Government's Motion to Dismiss should now be granted with prejudice instanter for multiple violations of Brady and the wrongful prosecution of General Flynn when the agents and prosecutors knew there was no crime. This hideous abuse of power and travesty of justice has only been exacerbated by the unprecedented and baseless rulings of this court, and it should not continue another day.
